SEEN, HEARD AND TOLD BY THE EDITOR

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.—Acts 4:20.

Fortunately for myself and both my boys, former military service has provided us with good hospital care with the check picked up by the government. A po' man just cant afford to get sick. The Blue Cross or some similar plan should be investigated for such po' men.

See where our subscriber-fishreman - preacher Ollie Knight of Amory is going to preach at the Gayley Free Will Baptist Church, near Calhoun City, next year, starting Oct. 1.

With the death of John Rundle in Grenada Tuesday,, it looks another era has closed here.

See where WNAG'S Jimmie Pinnex ate the DAR meal set aside for me last Friday.

My brother, Ellett Lawrence of Greenwood, came over to see me Tuesday, saw the great dam, Fred Lickfold, Henry Ray, and many of the other unchangable features of Grenada. Folks in Greenwood have to drive to Grenada to see a train. Ellett is one of those fortunate ones who rides over in a Cadillac to see the trains.

Movie goers greatest treat is in store for Grenada next week since Gone With The Wind, an immortal picture, will be at Grenada Theatre practically all of next week, beginning Saturday night. Everywhere it is possible to do so, I see this picture which never grows old to me. The last time was when Mabel and I saw it at Sparta, Tennessee, about 3 years ago.

Several years ago, while riding around Los Lngeles, I saw the Gone With the Wind "set", or rather some of it, still standing on the lot.

We own a newspaper cut of John Rundle taken for use in a report of his grand 80th birthday party at the Methodist Church, but, like many things we own, we can not find it for use on this occasion.

I never could figger out why the aggressor in the embroglio on the Gold Coast road recently did not report to the county "law". instead of the city "law", as he is supposed to have done. The City has nothing whatever to do with what goes on near the Carroll County Gold Coast.

How many Miles kids are there. We now have another one of them on our mailing list: Earl Miles at the N. E. La. State College, Monroe, La.

I got a "bite" from that article the Times-Picayune had about me a few weeks ago, Wednesday. A lady, Mrs. Gerald Capers on Peabody in Memphis, subscribed. We dont know her but her money will spend good when we get it.

It's not when Mabel and I go fishing, but it's got to be recorded when we dont go. We did not go Monday afternoon, as I was off in the pint-size beat with Albert Clark who pulled some apples from his orchard and sent Mabel, and we had a pie from them Tuesday.

Among the "prospects" bruited about as possible opponents of Supervisor Ben Sanders is McGune Talbert. It would be tough going for Ben if Julia pitched in and helped McCune. While kids big enough to talk know who the supervisor in a country beat is, half the folks in Grenada dont even know there is a supervisor.

John Howard Avent, resident of Greenwood, but former resident and native of Holcomb, where he was born 66 years ago, died in Greenwood early this week. His mother and four sisters survive.

In a short itinerary about Grenada Tuesday afternoon, Ellett Lawrence and I included a short visit to Fred Lickfold's new jewelry store and were amazed at the transformations made there.

Joe Mitchell of Scoby was in Tuesday to pay his dues and was complaining that Mrs. Mitchell, getting a little older, could not now make all the living for the family.

Nobody has yet come in to claim the Farm of The Week - Last Week, but the picture is still here waiting for you.

Sop Hallam, a charter member of Dayton, Tenn., sent in his annual dues this week.

In re the imbroglio about "two sets of books" in the power company's main office and Wallstreeters twisting up local directors. I just dont believe the Wallstreeters or anybody else can twist up Cap Oliver (one of the directors) or a majority of the board.

EDITOR & SUPERVISOR EXPLORE BEAT 3

The Pint-Size Beat Has Lots Or Roads, Few People

After several years' of "talking about the trip" Supervisor Albert Clark of Beat 3 finally came around Monday of this week and conducted me on a 35 miles "exploratory" trip thru his beat.

To the uninitated, Beat Three of Grenada County which was formed in 1870 when Grenada County was first organized, was the smallest beat of the 5 beats of the county then, and, since the government nibbled at the area to form Grenada Lake, Beat Three today is smaller than ever, and, compared to other beats of the county, is extremely small. Beat 3 lies on the north side of the river and extends from about the I. C. Railroad on the west to the Calhoun County line and is very narrow north and south.

We clocked our itinerary, beginning when we entered the beat about midway of the Yalobusha River and ending when we got back to the initial starting point. The distance traveled was 35 miles.

We could hardly look on Beat 3 as "thrown away" country, because it is "home" to a good many people and "old home" to many others whose folks choose Beat Three to live in. There are a good many nice level fields in the creek bottoms and along the rier, but most of such country is owned by the government even if leased back to farmers.

The biggest part of the privately owned land in Beat Three is hilly, cut-over land, with a small cleared space only here and there, but the beat is traversed by many miles of good roads, well-maintained by Clark and his crew.

We did not ride on all the roads, but we did ride on many of them and truth will make me say that the roads we used were well kept-up.

We saw such folks as the elderly Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Liles with a circular driveway around their modest home who, a short time ago, were forced to receive visitors, if any, via helicopter, living on an improved road provided by Albert Clark. The Liles, like many other couples living out in the country, is an elderly, not too healthy couple, whose children are scattered all around. Folks can not blame the Liles for bragging on Albert Clark.

Our itinerary included a short stop near the site of the former Youngs postoffice. It is quite a little settlement with Albert's family in one nice little home, Albert's elderly mother, Mrs. Goforth, in another home. Youngs was on or in a nice little level valley, apparently quite productive in seasonable years, of which 1954 is not one. Yalobusha County is just a little ways north and Calhoun County a mile or so east. As a matter of fact, up here is where Pesky Jones, oldtime sheriff of Grenada County, came from. Max Yeager lives nearby on the Lewis Yeager old tract.

Running eastward and westward thru this section was what was called the Grenada-Pittsboro road, but this road, like many others in the section, had been taken over by the government for relocation and surfacing, but not for maintenance.

We drove by the old Doll Clark home, near the county line, and on into Calhoun County (the roads almost showed to a foot where the counties met), by the former homesite of Coffeeville's Dr. Criss and over to Shiloh, old country church which has attached an old graveyard containing the bodies of nearby citizens who have passed on.

Even though I had not been "over Beat 3" since I measured the roads for Warner Horton back in the RFC days, I was not "lost" all of the time because familiar scenes and houses emerged from a tangled memory every now and then. I recalled the Will Criss old farm across from Graysport for example, also Hubert Clark's old holdings, as well as the former Anderson property.

See all these Hortons in and around Grenada and scattered about as lawyers, cotton-buyers, merchants, even preachers. Well, Albert and I went by the homesite of the first Horton, old man Robertson Horton, progenitor of all of the many Hortons. It was last owned by a grandson, Warner Horton, and the old home still stands there four-square to the winds and rains. It is located on a commanding spot on the north side of the river, overlooking Grenada Lake and is now owned by the government. We made short courses on the old Haserway road, the road Grenada County built parallel to the river. Bridges, or some of them, have been taken uot, so the road is now usable only in spots

We ran into such places as Dave Williams, place Hornsby Place, Cohea Place, Chapman place, all reminiscent of long ago.

While I have had a lot to say about the pint-size beat and the pint-size supervisor, and about how things should be changed up, I have always been nad still am quite fond of the irrepressible Albert Clark "who looks after Beat Three's interests" pretty well and who has "talked the government out of a lotta money" for picturesque roads and a Huey P. Long bridge to connect Beat Three to the mainland.

"Looking after Beat Three and the interests of its people" seems to be what Albert considers his job and, from what I saw and heard, I would say that Albert does those things pretty well.

We went and came by way of old No. 8 to the Huey P. Long bridge and we talked a lot about 'saving old No. 8" but that is being used as a subject for another article.

HON. JOHN RUNDLE, 82, DIES HERE TUESDAY

Lived Here Since 1920, He Was, Above All, A School Man

John Rundle, 82, died in his home in Grenada Tuesday night, September 28, 1954. He had been a victim of a malignant trouble which hastened his end.

Mr. Rundle was born in West Adams, Mass. on the 20th of August, 1870, started school there, but, as a lad, moved with his family to Scranton, Pa., where he was reared. He taught there and, later, attended a small college in Lebanon, Ohio, and later at Peabody College in Nashville, Tenn.

Twice married, his firs' wife bore him a son, John Jr., who was killed while serving in the Navy in World War II.

Mr. Rundle's first school in this state was at Walnut, Neshoba County, Miss. In 1920 he came to Grenada and took over the superintendency of Grenada City School, which post he held nearly thirty years. He saw the school plant here grow to its commanding proportions of today.

Mr. Rundle not only looked carefully after the welfare of every child committed to his crae, but also to every shingle anl every gutter and every roof plate in the school system. He has endeared himself to every Grenada student as none other has ever done.

He was a charter member of the local Rotary Club and, once, a district governor of this district. He was longtime teacher of the Men's Bible Class of his church, the Methodist Church. He served one term as senator in the state senate of this district. He served in many capacities and at state-level in educational associations and activities.

Only his widow survives him.

Funeral services are being held today (Thursday) at the Methodist Church, after which his body will be buried that afternoon. Rev. Felix A. Sutphin is in charge of funeral services.

Pall bearers will be J. C. Hathorn, N. L. Douglass, W. F. Water. Dr. Frank Hays, L. A. Dubard, Jr. and J. B. Perry.

C. O. COHEA HAS 85TH BIRTHDAY SUNDAY

Many Friends And Relatives Have Good Time At Old Home

The 85th birthday of Charlie Cohea, patriarch of Beat Three, was celebrated Sunday at the old family home in Beat Three.

Eight of the eleven children gathered at the scene and everybody, including Uncle Charlie, had a big time. In addition there was some of the friends who gathered there on the occasion.

The old family home is located on one of the small creek valleys west of Youngs old postoffice, west of the river.

Mr. Cohea's second wife died a few years ago, after which he abandoned maintaining keeping up his own home but "has lived around" alternately with various children. Currently he is living with the Whittimores near Grenada.

Children present included Mrs. Hattie Matthews and her daughter Mrs. Oneal Furgeson; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cohea and Mr. and Mrs. Frances Matthews of Oxford ; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dooley, and Herman of Oxford Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cohea of Gore Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Millard Whittimore and three children of Grenada; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cohea and Billy and Bob; then Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Kilgore of Winona, Okla.

Among friends noted by the writer were Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harrison and Mr. Rufus Harrison; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lisles; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Koonce; Mrs. Jean Chapman, Mr. Albert Clark, Cary Cook, Byron Hunter and his father of Grenada; Mrs. Alex Calder and boys; Mrs. Martha Dooley; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Joe McConner.

It was just a grand get-together with lots of good things to eat and lots of little gifts for Uncle Charlie.

Save Old No. 8 (WWW)

There is nothing formal about this. It is just an idea that Albert Clark and I hatched up about what is called old No. 8 highway from Grenada to and beyond old Graysport.

This highway is a dern good concrete highway, as hundreds of users know. It cost a heap of money. Most of the highway is on relocation and was built by the State Highway Department and Grenada County.

Albert and I rode over it Monday. As amatter of fact, I use the highway very, very often, as hundreds of others do, to get to the fishing sites near the Lonesome Pine and to other places along and close to this fine road. In fact to many regular users, old No. 8 presently is the regular means they use to and from Grenada, regardless of the beautiful views of the lake and regardless of the ease of getting to the fishing places.

We have a man right here in Grenada named John Boyd. John has the men, the equipment and the know-how when it comes to building and repairing and conserving roads, and that's the job we contemplate - "conserving old No. 8".

I have not seen or talked to John Boyd. He sems to be too busy to find. But, my suggestion, and this suggestion is fully concurred in by Albert Clark is this: have John give this road a look-see, make a few estimates, then go before the Grenada County Board of Supervisors Monday and give the members the benefit of his knowledge and experience as to what to do about what it will cost, when, etc., about "saving old No. 8."

This is not a Beat Two proposition or a Beat One proposition, but a COMMUNITY proposition and, whatever is necessary to do to "save old No. 8", should be paid for by Grenada County as a whole.

The most important thing to do right away is for John Boyd to look-see, then make his recommendations to the county supervisors. The only reason I suggest John Boyd is that John knows his stuff, and is here.

Frankly I dont claim to know exactly WHAT to do. That's a road man's field. But I do know that "old No. 8" should be saved, particularly when MOST of this magnificent highway is way above the highest water. At the present time, just about 4 tenths of a mile, near old Boiushe Creek, has deteriorated as all and the highway is still readily passable.

Dont let this fine concrete highway go down the drain unless and until all reasonable means of saving it have been explored.

I want to help solve the problem of holidays for stores around Grenada. The best suggestion, in the premises, made yet is that of the antique dealer, Albert Cohen, that the merchants adopt the siesta custom from the Latins: close up at noon and take a nap every day between 12 and 3.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

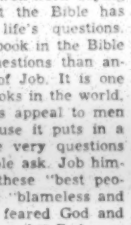
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Scripture: Job 1-2; 19-23.
Devotional Reading: Romans 8:33-39.

Man's Eternal 'Why'

Lesson for October 3, 1954



Dr. Foreman

DURING the next three months the Sunday school lessons in the "uniform" series dealt with in this column, are drawn from the wisdom and the worship of the ancient Hebrews, as found in those four not too well known books, Job, Proverbs, Psalms and Ecclesiastes. Parts of all but the first of these are known by heart everywhere, but much of them is unfamiliar territory. It would be a good idea during these three months to read these four books from start to finish. An average of two and a half chapters a day would do it. Why not?

More Questions Than Answers

It is a sort of well-worn saying of preachers that the Bible has the answers to life's questions. But there is one book in the Bible that has more questions than answers; the book of Job. It is one of the greatest books in the world, and it will always appeal to men everywhere, because it puts in a powerful way the very questions that the best people ask. Job himself was one of these "best people." He is called "blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil." God even speaks of him with some pride. But Job did not have all the answers, though he had most of the questions. His best friends thought, and no doubt he himself used to think, that suffering is always a sign that God is punishing the sufferer. This idea is still a common one. But Job felt there must be something wrong with it, for he fell a victim to disasters he would not have wished on his worst enemy. He lost his fortune (which was in cattle), his workmen, and his family, all within a few days, and finally he lost his health.

His friends thought they understood this. Suffering, they thought, was a sure sign of sin, so Job must have been a great sinner, in his intentions at least. But Job knew better. He knew he had not been a great sinner. So he raised the great "WHY?" that men before him and after him have raised. Why does God let good people suffer?

"But There Is No Justice"

It is not the mere painfulness of the world that weighs on us. It is the apparent unfairness of things. Pain and affliction that is "coming to" people does not bother our minds much, not even when it hits us ourselves. If you have a toothache and you know it is because you have indulged in too much candy and soft foods, you may cry about the toothache but you know, all the same, that you have nothing to cry about. You had it coming. If a cruel and murderous kidnapper dies in the gas chamber you do not feel greatly upset about it. You may even feel that no legal punishment can hurt him as much as he has hurt others. But if a good friend of yours dies of cancer, you do feel keen distress, because you cannot believe that your friend has earned such pain. And if you lift your eyes and look out over the world, especially if you know something about history, you will see so much frustration of the good, so much prospering of evil, down through the centuries, that you wonder sometimes how men can believe there is a God.

"I Seek . . . But I Cannot See"

If the woes of the world give us slight concern, selfish as we are by nature, we do wake up when trouble walks through our own doors. There must have been a good many people in trouble whom Job had known, but it took his own calamities to jolt him awake. We gather from his friends' remarks that he could speak cheerfully to those in distress, but when he was in trouble, he sang a sadder tune. Just when he needed most to talk with God, God did not seem to be anywhere near. The world is a puzzle to every man, but the good man, the believer in God, can sometimes be more puzzled by it than any one else. Because the believer feels that the world ought not to be like this, he is all the more distressed by what he sees. The better he is, the more he believes in God, the more distressed he is. It was Job who asked the terrible questions, not his weakly pious friends. Yet —Job did not "fold his hands and acquiesce."

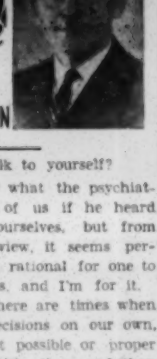
Town Talk



BY FED ROBINSON

Do you ever talk to yourself?

We dont know what the psychiatrist would think of us if he heard us talking to ourselves, but from some points of view, it seems perfectly proper and rational for one to talk to themselves, and I'm for it.

For instance there are times when we must make decisions on our own, and when its not possible or proper to discuss them with others and then we certainly could and should 'talk it over' with ourselves. This morning while still in bed it was necessary for me to decide on going on to Sunday School or stay at home, and after talking it over with myself I decided to get up nad go on down there and do what I could to help out with the program as a kind of appreciation for my own good fortune for having life, health and a mind. Yes, there are many problems which you can talk to yourself about. Some you should talk yourself out of and some you should talk yourself into. Good luck to you with your decisions as you discuss them with yourself.

Imagination . . ." The picture-forming power of the mind" . . ." is one of the most valuable functions of the human brain. Great things have been accomplished through imagination. All the great engineering feats of modern times had their beginnings in some one's imagination. It has been said our American ingenuity is capable of developing into reality anything men can imagine.

If you have ever observed a ten year old riding up and down the yard on a broom stick for a horse and heard his murmurings, you have seen imagination at its best. We wonder what are some of the things you have done, some of the places you have visited, in your own rovings in imaginative contemplation? Well, the chances are you are a little sensitie to reveal them, but I am not. I admit to having enjoyed many a great song, or a rendition of fine music by picturing myself in the roll of the artist. Its easier to do that with a redio though than on television because when I see Liberace right there on the screen I know it isn't me and that settles it, so it is necessary to give him credit. But all my life I've wanted to play music and have had quite an experience with it in a strictly imaginative roll. During the war we read a story of a young pilot who radioed his base for instructions after explaining he was the only living man left aboard the plane which was seriously damaged. He wanted to know whether he should try to make it back to the field or ditch the plane in the channel. Well, the base tower told him that plane had cost two million dollars, told him he had had two years of intensive training just for such emergencies and they certainly did want that plane brought down and landed on the home strip and he was not to entertain any other thought. Well, when that poor pilot and me got that ship on the ground I was wringing wet with sweat - dont know of course how he felt . . . but I felt exuberant with pride and joy for a job well done. I think the greatest imaginative exploration I ever had was to fly a rescue ship across the Pacific through typhoons and unchartered islands to rescue that intrepid flyer Amelia Earhart who with her navigator was lost somewhere in the misty waters of that great ocean a few years ago. How I would liked to have done that!

Well, the dreaming is over and here we are back in Pine Bluff, Arkansas on a late Sunday afternoon. Ada it watering the shrubs and flowers and I have some planning to do for tomorrow's work and these things are real and I suppose it is the reality we must deal with in our daily living.

Will put down again that line which Andrew Whiatker left off last week: "We do not know how many important people there are in this world, but one thing we are sure of, there are two less than you and I think there are. —Fed.

SEEN, HEARD & TOLD BY THE EDITOR

Although Mabel and I were invited by the Commerical Appeal to be an Editor's Day Monday at the Tri-State Fair, we could not go. J. Fred M. Austin, so far as I know, was the only GCW man to attend the fair in Memphis from the GCW.

We also could have got a bountiful feast and an earful of DAR lore at the Monte Cristo, all for free, Friday night, but Mabel, just returned from a trip to Birmingham, was tired and I did not want to go alone.

I really wanted to be at the birthday party of Charlie Cohea Sunday, but, again, did not make it .

Reviewing my life, it looks like I COULD be somewhere ALL the time, eating free food, dipping free snuff and talking, but, I guess, I am getting older and dont feel like such things all the time.

Seeing the picture of the city-owned hanger elsewhere reminds me that that huge building was about to go to hell for want of proper maintenance. John McEachin, the city manager, saw that, by spending a small amount of money, the building could be fixed up, so he got busy. He felt that the small expenditure would probably save a huge amount of money eventually. He visualized the time when there would be an overpowering public demand to build a NEW place to take care of planes. He figgered that it would be cheaper to take care of the OLD than to build a new outfit. As City Manager, he patches streets needing patching and uses city forces to build or blacktop other streets. He does these things by scratching around and "finding" the money. Unless John gets "old on the job", and this is not likely, the people of Grenada will all see, as many have already seen, that the city manager form of government, under a hard-headed Scotsman like John, is the BEST form of government Grenada has ever had.

Our man Willie, who is mighty hard to find to give fish to, is now working at the courthouse while Cap Jones, the regular janitor is taking a vacation.

I dont want the boys or Ben Sanders to forget about blacktopping the short stretch of road from the main road to the dam to the VFW home. A supervisor will often repair a road to curry political favor with just ONE average voter. How much more important to please over five hundred younger fellows who will be voting a long, long time! If Albert Clark had the VFW home in the pint-size beat, he would build a concrete road to it.

They're Biting at Grenada Lake . .

Grenada Lake, the largest in the chain of four, consisting of Arkabutla, Sardis, Enid and Grenada is really getting "right." Limit catches of 1-pound bass are being taken by most anglers, either using live bait, or casting and spinning lures. Crappie are being caught in large numbers, but they are running quite small. However, once in a while, a slab will be taken. Those who like bream fishing can catch a lot of small bream. Cat fish are biting slow, but a few are being taken at and below the spillway.

Grenada Lake, unlike the others, will soon have hard surface roads all around it. From Grenada one can get in to the lake most any spot. On the north, one can got out old No. 7 and do the same thing. On this road, up near Bryant, Denley's Boat Landing is located, with adequate boats for all. Grenada Landing on the south side also has plenty of boats for rent.

The Grenada County Wildlife League has, in our estimation, one of the choice spots on the lake. They are to build a nice club house, deep well, boat dock, picnic area around the club house etc. in the near future. The League will also dig a channel from the lake to the club house, so that members boats may be taken care of more easily. This League, with Frank Evans as President, and Warring Taylor as Secretary is really "on the ball". This League is not made up exclusively of Grenada County people, but from adjoining counties. If you live in Greenwood, Winona, etc and want to get into this very wide-awake organization, just fill in the contract, appearing elsewhere in this issue and mail to either the President, Frank Evans, Or to Mr. Taylor, the Secretary. After all, five dollars per months for 20 months, is a small fee for the privileges that will be enjoyed by members of Grenada County Wild life League. Fill in that application and mail TODAY!!

Jerry and Jane in the Case of "Dial 100"
GEE, I HOPE I CAN REMEMBER ALL THE THINGS I'VE SEEN TODAY, SO I CAN TELL THE CLASS HOW GAS SERVICE GETS TO OUR HOUSE.
WHAT'S THIS ROOM AND ALL THOSE DIALS?
THIS IS BILL'S SPECIAL JOB AND HE CAN ANSWER THAT QUESTION.
HI, JERRY
EACH DIAL HERE TELLS ME JUST HOW MUCH GAS IS BEING USED AT A CITY IN MISSISSIPPI ANY TIME OF DAY OR NIGHT.
HERE'S THE ONE FOR MY TOWN.
RIGHT. IF WEATHER STARTS TO GET COLDER OR LOTS OF FOLKS IN TOWN BEGIN TO COOK DINNER AT ONCE, I CAN SEE ON THIS DIAL WHEN MORE GAS IS NEEDED IN THAT TOWN.
AND YOU TURN MORE GAS INTO PIPES FROM HERE?
I SEND A SIGNAL TO TURN VALVES SO GAS PRESSURE STAYS THE SAME ALL THE TIME. NO MATTER WHEN OR HOW MUCH FOLKS USE, VALLEY GAS CAN KEEP GAS FLOWING SMOOTHLY IN IT'S SERVICE PIPES.
MUST BE THE LATEST THING. EVEN I DIDN'T KNOW WE HAD ALL THIS.
IT'S ONE OF THE FIRST IN THE COUNTRY, BOB, AND EVERY CITY WE SERVE WILL HAVE A DIAL UP HERE SOON.
WE ARE MIGHTY PROUD OF THE WAY IT'LL HELP VALLEY GAS GIVE EVEN BETTER SERVICE BECAUSE WE CAN SMOOTH OUT FLOW OF GAS ALL THRU OUR SYSTEM. BACK TO OUR PIPELINE SUPPLIERS AND EVEN TO ALL THE MANY DIFFERENT GAS FIELDS THAT STAND BEHIND YOUR DEPENDABLE GAS SERVICE.
THANKS FOR TAKING US AROUND.
I ENJOYED IT. COME BACK AGAIN.

Spectacular "Gone With The Wind" Sequence Called For 1,230 Extras!

Although such recent spectacles as "Knights of the Round Table", "Ivan hoe" and "Quo Vadis" employed thousands of extras in their scenes, the all-time record for the number of extra players used in a single scene is still held by David O. Selznick's production of "Gone With hte Wind".

The technicolor filmization of Margaret Mitchell's famous novel, starring Clark Gable, Vivien Leigh, Leslie Howard and Olivia de Havilland, returns to the Grenada Theatre in its new wide screen presentation, offering even greater panoramic scope and spectacle to this never-to-be-frogotten drama of the South during its turbulent Civil War era. Showing Saturday at 8:30 p. m. Oct. 2 and runs through Oct. 8, seven days.

Twelve-thousand days of employment were given to bit players and extras during the filming of "Gone With the Wind". The largest number to appear in a single scene was 1,230, who represented the residents of Atlanta, Georgia, and soldiers of the Union and Confederate armies in the spectacular destruction of many parts of Atlanta at the time of burning of the arsenal.

In order to handle the vast crowds of acters, an elaborate chart system was set up by which each player was able to establish his position in a scene, either to re-play it or to proceed with new action.

Play Amory Here Friday Night

(By Hugh Ketchum)

A brilliant passing and running attack, featuring precision blocking, combined with an alert, hard-tackling defense proved too much for the Grenada Bulldogs Friday night as the West Point Green Wave surged to a 33 to 0 Little Ten victory at West Point.

Friday night the Bulldogs return home for a Little Ten encounter with the Amory Panthers, unbeaten in conference play.

Grenada welcomes home Mrs. Carrie Goodwin who returned last Sunday from Memphis where she underwent major surgery. They have been in Jackson as guests of their sister and brother Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Lipscome and family earlier this week. On Wednesday they, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dubard, attended the Mid-South Fair in Memphis. Mrs. John McEachin, sister of Mrs. Williams was baby sitter for the youngest of the Williams children on Wednesday. NOTICE

Owners And Operators Of Au tomobiles And Trucks

The 1955 tags go on sale Friday, October 1st. The law provides that tags shall be secured during the month of October and to avoid penalty thereafter, you are urged to get yours as early in the month as possible to avoid the rush of the last few days.

The legislature, at its last regular session, passed a law to require proof of payment of municipal ad valorem taxes as well as of county and state ad valorem taxes before tags may be issued. I quote from the law, to-wit:

"AD VALOREM TAX RECEIPTS TO BE PRESENTED WITH APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. — When any person shall make application to the comptroller or to a sheriff for an annual privilege license upon any vehicle which was subject to, and liable for, state and county ad valorem taxes for the preceding fiscal year within this state, such person shall present with his application the original or a duplicate of the tax receipt evidencing the payment of such tax, or other sufficient proof of the payment of such county and state ad valorem taxes on such vehicle, AND, IF SUCH VEHICLE WERE SUBJECT TO MUNICIPAL TAXES FOR THE PRECEDING FISCAL YEAR WITHIN THIS STATE SUCH PERSON SHALL ALSO PRESENT WITH HIS APPLICATION THE ORIGINAL, OR A DUPLICATE OF THE TAX RECEIPT EVIDENCING THE PAYMENT OF SUCH TAX, OR OTHER SUFFICIENT PROOF OF THE PAYMENT OF SUCH MUNICIPAL AD VALOREM TAXES ON SUCH VEHICLE FOR THE PRECEDING FISCAL YEAR, AND NO PRIVILEGE LICENSE SHALL BE ISSUED FOR ANY VEHICLE WHICH IS LIABLE FOR STATE AND COUNTY AD VALOREM TAXES OR FOR MUNICIPAL AD VALOREM TAXES IN THIS STATE FOR THE PRECEDING YEAR UPON WHICH SUCH TAXES IN THIS STATE HAVE NOT BEEN PAID."

Residents of the City of Grenada will please take notice of this requirement and bring their CITY TAX RECEIPTS. You will save time by having your CITY tax receipt ready.

Any person with a tag issued in another state will take notice that such tag must be replaceed with a Mississippi tag within 30 days from the time it is brought into the state.

Truck operators should make application early in the month in order that they may have their tags on November 1. New tags should be on all cars and trucks on that date.

—SOIL CONSERVATION—
(By Rex R. Blue, SCS)

The extended drought for the past three years has emphasized the necessity for an adequate supply of water for livestock on the farms.

During the past week stock watering ponds have been constructed on the farms of J. M. Cooley, R. V. Nason, J. W. McCormick, L. A. Dubard, and Roger Haley. SCS personnel staked out and checked the ponds. ACP assistance paid approximately one-half the construction cost with the farmer paying the balance.

New District Cooperators are Frank Cooley, Grenada, Roger Haley, Tie Plant, and C. W. Hovis, Elliott. These farmers will be furnished land Capability Maps of their farms and receive technical assistance from the District in developing conservation plans for the farms.

Farmers throughout the county are urged to increase acreage of small grain and winter grazing crops.

Kirk McRee of Holcomb has installed a secondary drainage ditch on their farm east of Holcomb to drain new land that is being cleared for agricultural purposes.

Farmers who have been issued prior approvals for assistance on ponds, ditches, terraces, etc. are requested to make arrangements as soon as possible to get the surveys done so that the work may be accomplished before bad weather.

GRAIN-FEED PROGRAM IN EFFECT IN GRENADA COUNTY

Grenada County has been designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as being eligible for the grain feed program as a result of the recent drought. Applications by farmers will be made through the local Farmers Home Administration or the Agricultural Stabilization Committee Office. The County Committee of the Farmers Home Administration will determine eligibility. An established farmer or stockman whose principal occupation is farming or ranching and whose financial condition is such that he requires assistance under this program to maintain his foundation herd of livestock and continue his livestock operations is eligible for assistance under the emergency grain program. Assistance under this program will be provided only for the maintenance of foundation herds of cattle, sheep and goats. Assistance to any one applicant will be limited to that for him to obtain a 60 day supply of grain for his foundation herd. Feed supplies of the applicant already on hand will be taken into consideration. Grains eligible for purchase under this program are corn, oats, barley and grain sorghum.

Generally, feed will be purchased through the established feed and grain dealers. The feed grain will thus be bought on the open market and at prevailing market prices. Under the provision of the special program, eligible applicants will receive certificates valued at $1.00 per hundred weight which will be used to purchase grain feed. This is the extent of the government assistance.

Members of the local Farmers Home Administration County Committee are Mr. Frank J. Hood, Mr. Willie P. Moss and Mr. John W. Willis, Jr.

Negotiations are under way for a hay feed program in Mississippi, but hay purchases are not authorized at this time. Si Corley, State Commissioner of Agriculture, will forward County Farmers Home Administration Offices information on the hay program just as soon as contracts are completed between the Secretary of Agriculture and the Governor of the State.

One notable change in the family's domestic economy is that our cat Buckingham has learned to eat and relish these stupid little fish, raw not cocked. Just give Buckingham a raw fish, and presto. Formerly we had to dress and cook a fish before he would begin to eat.

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.—Acts 4:20.

Who can remember back in the Hoover Days when a rabbit hunter developed such a technique that he could look at the imprint of the rabbit foot in the mud and determine whether the rabbit was fat enough to fry himself. If he was not fat enough, the hunter abandoned that track and found another set of tracks. It looks like the gdrepublicans are fixing to bring in Hoover practices again.

Thanks to two of Grenada's estimable ladies: "Miss" Mollie Townes and Mrs. Sam Williamson for paying up recently.

Somebody told me that Bob Townes was in a Memphis hospital, but doing "very well."

I regret that, though I passed by Sunday, time was so pressing that I did not take the opportunity to stop in and feel Sam Norris' pulse at Holcomb. Sam just recently underwent a hi' falutin' operation in Memphis that was so unusual that is deserved a write-up in the Commercial Appeal. Sam, I heard, is mending fast and, I hope, soon will be back fishing on Tippo.

From a certain tonsorial parlor, Monday I learned some political dope, said to be straight from the feed box: that Frank Morrison and Holland will try for Sheriff again and that Speck Davis told that Speck's wife would also run. If those are lies, they are not my lies.

A barber shop is worse if anything than a beauty parlor. They know EVERYTHING, or say they do.

Last week, I made a grievous error. In referring to Radio Wells I neglected to affix his most important title - Colonel Wells. He, you may recall, is one of Hugh White's honorary colonels, along with Cap Oliver, Dr. Avent and im Ellard, a gallarx of gallants.

About a month ago, a man named McMath had a piece in the GCW in which he was seeking to get some infromation about his Grenada County folks of long ago. We had a reply from Colin Campbell of Nixon, Texas and another from Historian Boushe. Both letters we mailed on to Ohio.

Alert Telephone Man Saves Fireman Overcome By Smoke

MERIDIAN — A city fireman, fighting a lone battle against a raging grass fire in suburban Meridian early Saturday afternoon, was seen to stagger and fall and fail to rise and he may owe his life to the fact his fall was seen by C. P. Maxwell, Installation Foreman for the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company. Southern Bell employees generally receive first-aid and rescue training.

City Fireman, I. M. Moore, is back on duty at the East End Fire Station today, following several days of hospitalization including a twelve-hour stretch in an oxygen tent. Meanwhile, Mr. Maxwell is being praised by Fire Department officials and telephone company representatives for his quick-thinking and prompt action.

The fire came to Mr. Maxwell's attention first because it menced telephone property including the company's warehouse and garage. The danger was increased by a group of large oil tanks which seemed to lie across the path of the spreading flames. A hose truck, manned only by Moore was sent to the scene and Mr. Maxwell volunteered to help unload the hose and attach it. Then Moore began to play water on the fire.

Maxwell went behind the fire truck away from the heat and smoke to observe the results. From there, he saw Moore stagger and fall, apparently overcome by the intense heat and the thick smoke. He ran to the prostrate man, lifted him to his shoulders and carried him out of the danger zone.

C. P. MAXWELL

An unidentified man assisted in removing Moore further to the shadow of a lumber stack where Maxwell applied first aid measures. Upon his instructions an ambulance was called and removed Moore to the hospital.

Considerable work by a group from the East End Fire Station brought the fire under control.

WHAT's NEW

If you know of any family whose summer fun at their cottage is marred by hazards of impure water, be sure to tell them about this newest electronic purifyer.

This water purifying device which uses ultraviolet irradiation is smaller than an electric toaster and can be attached permanently or temporarily to any supply of tap water. It may also be filled by hand wherever pipes are not available.

By exposing water to the ultraviolet irradiation of a General Electric 4-watt germicidial lamp, the water becomes purified.

The unit is made with white enamel finish, aluminum, stainless steel and other non-corrosive materials. It sells for about $60.00.

The right atmosphere in your dining room is as important to the success of a meal as the food you serve. Add zest and interest to everyday meals as well as those for guests by varying the lighting in your dining room.

The newest type of ceiling fixture, designed especially for dining rooms, gives you a choice of light to blend with your mood.

When you want lots of light for family dinners or for games around the dining table these attractive fixtures flood the ceiling with light while a special spotlight installed in the center spotlights the table.

When you want a more dramatic setting, you can use the spotlight alone to add highlights and sparkle to your table.

This type of fixture may be wired on two separate circuits so that upward and downward lighting may be controlled separately. However, for older homes where you have only one circuit there are also fixtures of this type in which the center spotlight is operated manually by pulling an inconspicuous chain located in the center of the fixture. A long handled hook bar enables one to reach the chain easily.

World's Largest Light Bulb

General Electric announced here today that it had developed and produced the world's largest and most impressive artificial light source.

A 75,000-watt incandescent lamp bulb, it is half again as large as the previous largest bulb. It was developed as a feature of G. E.'s observance this year of the 75th birthday of Edison's most famous invention.

The bulb was conceived, designed and assembled by G-E lamp development scientists and engineers at Nela Park, headquarters of G. E.'s lamp division. Its glass bulb, largest ever made, was hand blown by the Corning Glass Co., first producer of bulbs for Edison.

D.A.R. BANQUET FEATURES DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER

The Grenada County chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution opened its 1954-55 season at a banquet at the Monte Cristo Friday night with members and their guests assembling at seven o'clock.

Hon. Boyd Campbell of Jackson vice president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States was speaker.

The entire north room of the handsomely appointed restaurant was arranged for those who attended, and the speakers table was the focal point of interest with an elaborate white gladiola arrangement with the D. A. R. insignia all lighted by white tapers in crystal candelabra. The quartet tables featured single tapers placed on patriotic colors and minature American flags. Patriotic colors and American flags were quite in evidence however the American flag wasn't used as decoration.

Preceeding the lecture, a bountiful turkey banquet was served, and at the dessert break, and after the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, guests were introduced. Mrs. T. B. Revell, Jr. recognized other officers when she introduced Mrs. H. A. Alexander, past State Regent; and Mrs. E. L. Wilkins, State Secretary, Mrs. E. S. Lewis, Chaplain said grace.

Mrs. Jack McDougal, vocalist, accompanied by Mrs. H. A. Alexander at the organ, sang "God Bless America". The Star Spangled Banner was sung in unison. Mrs. L. J. Doak who arranged the program, introduced the speaker, Hon. Boyd Campbell.

Mr. Campbell, known to Grenadians as the husband of the former Miss Louise Horton (sister of Hurd) has made quite a name for himself in national, as well as state affairs. In his talk in Grenada, he spoke vehemently against communism, basing his facts on his experiences during a recent trip behind the Iron Curtain when he attended, this past summer, the ILO Convention at Geneva, Switzerland. He attended in the capacity of a representative on Education. Mr. Campbell's speech, recorded by WNAG of Grenada was broadcast Monday evening of this week.

Those attending included these members and guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Doak and guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Oliver; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brewer and guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Batson; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Alexander and guests, Mrs. E. M. Grimes and Bob Alexander; Mrs. E. S. Lewis and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Spivey Kent; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McCool and guests Mr. and Mrs. Brad Dye;

Mrs. Selvyn Jones and guests William T. Upshaw and Mrs. R. B. Townes; Mr. and Mrs. Grady Green, Mrs. Rhew Brunson and guest, Miss Petie Pate; Mrs. Sam Simmons Sr. and son Sam Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Reeves; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Calhoun; Mr. and Mrs. Eli Whitaker Mr. and Mrs. Jack McDougal and Mr. and Mrs. A. Boyd Campbell, guests;

GLADIOLA H-D CLUB MET

Gladiola Home Demonstration Club members were entertained at Char- Mrs. Clayton Carpenter and guests, Gladiola Branscome Harris, originator of the first home demonstration club in the Pea Ridge community many years ago. Upon the re-organization of the club it was renamed for Mrs. Harris "The Gladiola Home Demonstration Club."

The Harris home, which is located between Oakland and Charleston was a very delightful setting for the meeting, and members enjoyed a tour of the home during the afternoon. Mrs. Harris is home demonstration agent in Tallahatchie County.

Eight members of the Gladiola H-D Club were present for a business meeting during which election of officers was held as follows: President, Mrs. Joe Ward; V-P, Mrs. Clinton Thomason; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Melton Mitchell. The latter was also elected 4-H advisor.

In a small community like Grenada, tales are always springing up. One of the latest tales concerns a Grenada man who was at one of the joints on the Gold Coast where he found a lady faced with the necessity of walking back to town. The man, with extreme gallantry, offered to let the lady accompany him back to town in his car. On their return to town, on one of those lonely roads characteristic of that remote section, the husband of the riding lady overtook the equippage and beat up the accomodating Good Samaritan. What he thought was "up", the writer does not know, nor would he dare say. The fact of the matter the whole affair is cloaked in ananomy and nobody yet has come forward to get the matter in true perspective in the press. There are elements of hush, hush about the whole affair. The affair is further complicated by the tale that the virtuous protector of his own fireside, if indeed that was the role assumed by the beater-up, drove in to Grenada and informed the "law" that they had better go out and get the fellow who had been beaten up, and it turned out that the man supposed to be laying on the lonely roadside was still in Grenada and had not been to the Gold Coast at all. These are just fanciful tales floating about Grenada. One sage fellow said the lesson he got from this matter was: leave married women walking; dont ride 'em anywhere.

That Calhoun fellow with those beautiful collies for sale was in Grenada Monday. What with the gd-republicans messing things up as they are, folks had better get some good rabbit dogs, preferably, against the day when meat will be meat whether from a cow or from a rabbit.

With this type of telephone equipment, skippers of boats operating off the Gulf Coast will soon be able to call their home port and other points as casually as office-to-office calls are made on land.

SHIPS-TO-SHORE TELEPHONE SERVICE TO BE INAUGURATED

Maritime Radio Telephone Service for the Mississippi Gulf Coast will be inaugurated on September 24 upon completion of the new VHF station being constructed by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The decision to provide this new service followed a lengthy survey by the telephone company which revealed the extent of today's need for ship-to-shore communication in this area where maritime traffic is already heavy and is increasing fast.

Antenna for the new station is located atop the tank which supplies water for the Veteran's Adminstration Hospital some 5 miles east of Gulfport. It will rise to a height of approximately 150 feet above the gulf waters.

The expected radius of operation for the Gulf Coast stations is 25 to 27 miles. It will provide telephone service from all ships equipped with VHF maritime radio telephones to any land telephone; and any land telephone can call any ship equipped for service within the Mississippi Gulf Coast area.

According to W. H. Bunn, Southern Bell District Manager for the area, complete equipment will be installed by the company as rapidly as it is available in all craft making application for it at any of the Southern Bell offices along the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Seven ship-to-shore telephone stations are already in operation along the Gulf of Mexico and the Mississippi Gulf Coast station is one of six additional stations now being constructed.

The service is used mainly by commercial shipping, but many pleasure craft as well are equipped for ship-to-shore communication. Any one on ships equipped with telephones may talk to any telephone on land simply by calling the operator as you would if you were on land.
